About This Game

Don't Stand Out is a fast-paced take on the Battle Royale games – the ones where you have a few brief skirmishes in a half an hour match. The game uses the genre's basics to build a multiplayer experience suited for short matches packed with action. You can play in a more traditional fashion – set up an ambush, controlling the location and moving between covers. Or just don't give a monkey's, run guns blazing and wreak havoc! It's up to you. Don't Stand Out is all about fun combat, not looting.

The game's action is packed with colorful voxel graphics. Because this explosive party just can't take place in some gray+brown setting. And as it's a party there sure are costumes! Don't Stand Out features tons of customization options for your inner fashion killa.

Fast-paced take on the Battle Royale genre. You don't have to look for the nearest enemy for minutes – everything is lightning fast.
